Class of 1969

New Bedford High School
New Bedford, Massachusetts

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was...
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago... it must be...
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories:
They're all that's left you.

- P. Simon

Time it was,

*And what a time
it was,*

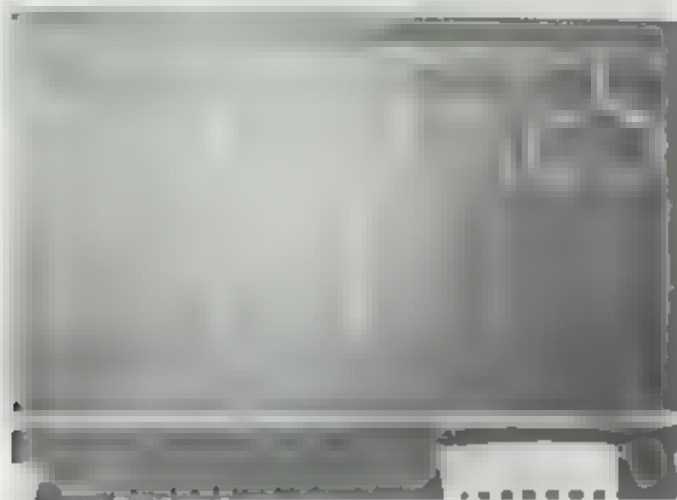

It was . . . A time of innocence,

A time of confidences.

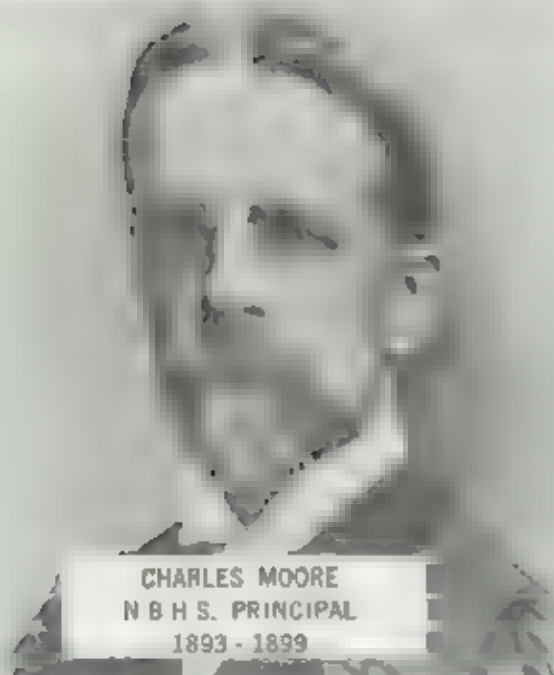

Long ago...

In Memoriam

*The golden thread of life
Was snapped,
Just when it gleamed the brightest,
When youth — glad youth
Was at its height.
We who knew his hand-clasp
And his smile
Feel somehow that since he went
The sun is not so bright, nor
The day so fair.*

On March 31, an automobile accident claimed the life of Dennis P. Medeiros, a member of our class. Dennis was a Staff Sergeant in the R.O.T.C. His carefree spirit and ability to make others laugh is genuinely missed.

American Field Service Abroad

Donna Pedro, one of the most outstanding members of our class, served as a representative of our school, city and nation during the summer of '68. She was sent to Greece as a summer exchange student, where she lived with a family in Karditsa.

Although unable to attend a normal school session during the summer, she did attend classes on her voyage by boat across the Atlantic. In these classes she was briefed in the Greek language and customs, preparing her for life with her foreign family. Except for a two week stay in the City of Volos, and a rather rushed tour of Athens, Donna spent the entire summer becoming acquainted with the way of life of her "family."

Of her experience Donna says, "I learned to live as a Greek, and became more of a person. I have acquired an understanding of another people, which is to me a more personal and fulfilling experience than any other."

Our A. F. S. Classmate from Venezuela

Dear friends:

I am here trying to say something that is impossible to say. I am trying to tell you what I feel after a year of new and wonderful experiences. This is hard and I can't find the right words. I can say that I will never forget anyone or any moment that I have spent here, with all my friends, my family, and my school. This year in the United States has been such a great one that I can only say thanks to all the people who in some way or another have made it possible. Now remember, when I am back in Venezuela, you will have someone who will always think of you.

Your friend,

Elizabeth Guia

This year the Class of '69 was fortunate in having two foreign exchange students. Elizabeth Guia, our charming exchange student from Caracas, Venezuela and Roberto Roccato, our personable guest from Como, Italy, became active and valuable members of our class. Lee's poise and sense of humor would make her an asset to any class. She was a member of the Girls' League, Pep Club and of course participated in the many A. F. S. activities. Lee's warmth and engaging personality made her the unanimous choice as Queen of the Girls' League Ball. "I will never forget anyone" and the Seniors of '69 will never forget Lee.

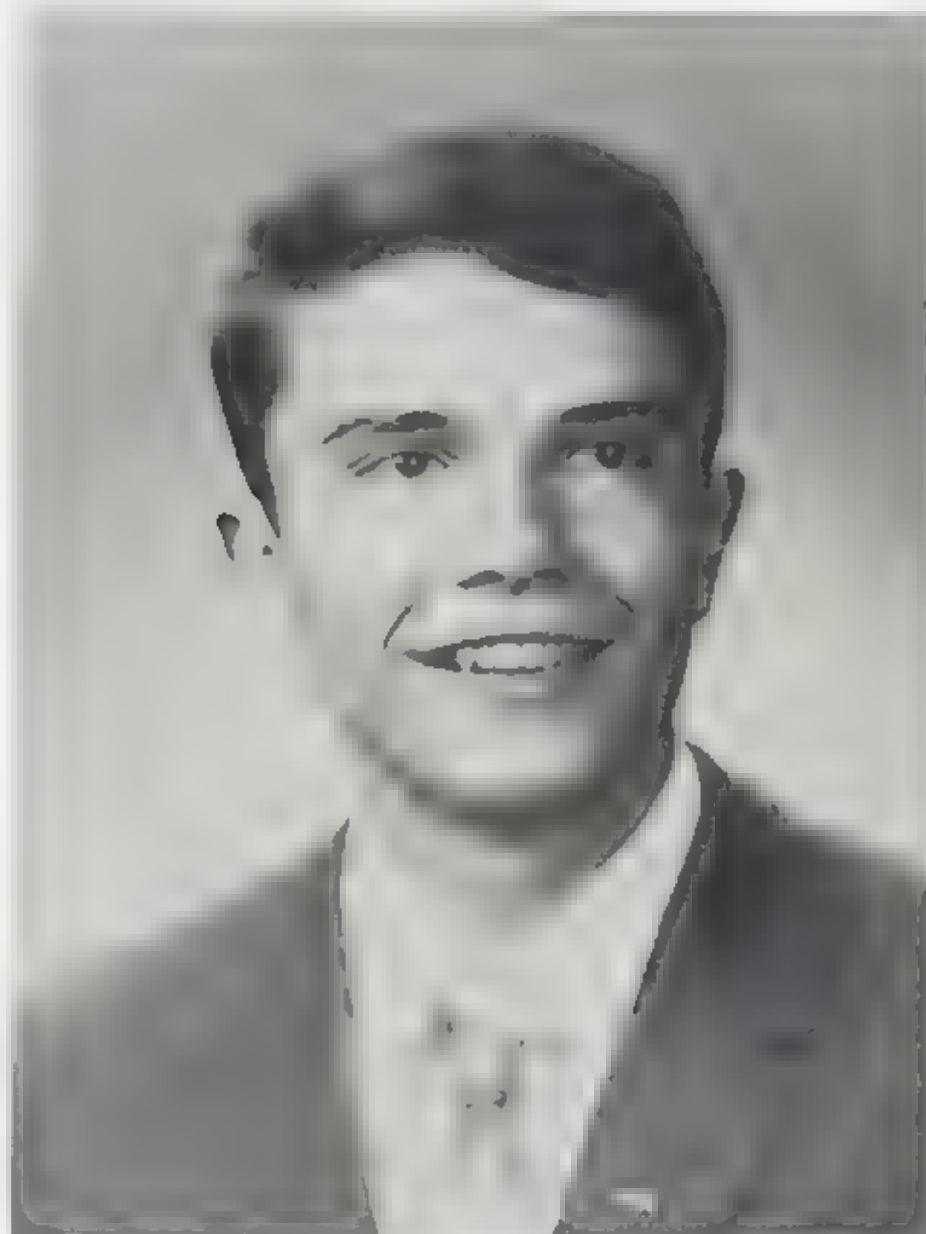

Our A. I. S. Classmate from Italy

Dear friends,

Cheering at football games - surfing for the first time - dating with American girls - eating wild American pizza and uneatable peanut butter. America is all this, and this I will never forget. It has been a great experience. We have given each other a part of ourselves, this year. This is the way one makes friends, everywhere; and knowing you has not only been very interesting, but fun! I hope that soon people all over the world will be able to sit around a fire - like we did after ice cream parties - and make fun of themselves and each other.

Thanks, and thanks AFS.

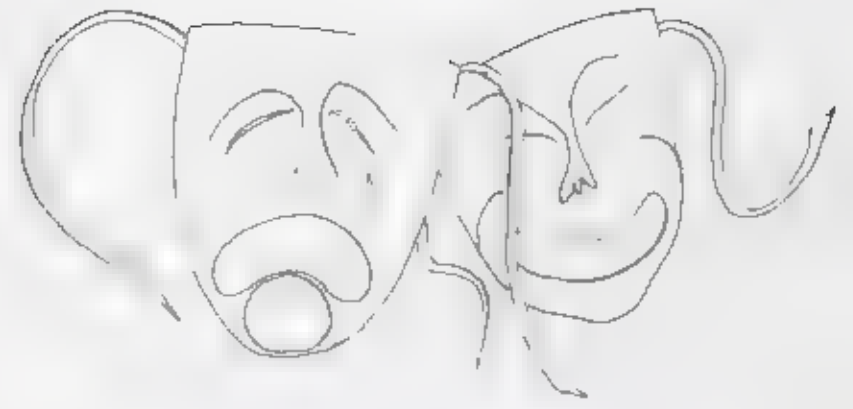

Roberto Roccato

Roberto Roccato's multi-faceted nature established him as a welcome addition to our class. Besides achieving honor grades, Roberto enjoyed all sports and was a member of our tennis team and drama club. His unfailing courtesy, consideration, and friendliness added luster to our school.

Like Roberto, we share the hope that people all over the world will be able to draw closer together in friendship. With people such as Lee and Roberto leading the way the achievement of this hope is a certainty.

The New Bedford High School Chapter of the National Honor Society consists of Juniors and Seniors who have shown they meet the high standards of scholarship, leadership, service, and character set by the National Honor Society. The officers of the Honor Society participated in a regional conference at Bishop Connolly High. Plans were made to exchange students for a day with other area high schools. The Honor Society also sponsored a tutorial program that provided help for students who wanted it. The annual fall and spring inductions were held under the guidance of Miss Hindle, the new advisor. A highlight of the year was the Honor Society party.

Student Council

President	Mary-Beth Shepley
Vice President	Marshall Lukoff
Secretary	Pamela Souza
Treasurer	Susan Ventura
Advisor	Mr. Frederick Cole

The Student Council is just what its name implies, a group of students who meet as a council for the benefit of the student body. Its members take charge of the elections of all class officers. Throughout the year, council members could be found selling bookcovers, thesis covers, pens, and refreshments at home basketball games.

This year, the Council revised the Student Handbook, which is given to the sophomores, and conducted a "Beautify our School" Campaign with the help of Mr. Gracia. A dance was also held in January to help raise scholarship funds.

The Girls' Welfare League is a select group of twenty-four senior and twelve junior girls, chosen on the basis of character, dependability, and willingness to serve the school and community. These girls make colorful tray favors for the area hospitals, and make weekly visits to the City Mission.

The league held a faculty coffee hour honoring Elizabeth Guia and Roberto Roccato, our exchange students, and two very successful parties for the children at the mission at Easter and Christmas.

The annual Girls' League Ball, was one of the high points on this year's social calendar.

Vice President	Andrew Miller
Secretary	Curtiss Brown
Treasurer	Armand Query
Senior Board	Gerald Freedman
Junior Board	Paul Livramento
Advisor	Mr. John Viveiros

In accordance with their motto, "we build," this year's Key Club has built itself into one of the most active and civic-minded groups in the school.

The traditional activities which the club sponsors, such as our Durfee Bonfire, Canned Food Drive, Car Wash and Faculty vs. Key Club Basketball Game were extremely successful. In addition, the club members held an interclub meeting, served as ushers for Senator Kennedy's visit, and sponsored a Korean Orphan.

The Key Club boys are indeed a credit to the class, due to their service to both school and community.

Alpha Debating Society

President John Hughes
Vice President Mary Aalfs
Secretary Evelyn Heyman
Treasurer Andrew Ponichtera
Advisor Mr. John Borowicz

The Debating Society participated in interscholastic debates within the Narragansett Debating League. Public speaking ability and forensic skills were developed through both the league debates and practice debates within the club. Members of the Debating Society attended the Boston College Speech Festival where they observed debates and took part in group discussions about debate techniques. Several members of the Debating Society represented New Bedford High School in the American Legion's speech contest.

 Miss Beverly Bizzarro

The Senior members of this year's Drama Club proved themselves exceptionally talented in their two productions. "Readin', Writin' and 'Rithmetic", an amusing farce, was presented for the entertainment of the student body. Later in the year the public was invited to their performance of "Bye Bye Birdie." This very successful presentation marked the first time a Broadway musical was chosen by the Drama Club for their annual spring production.

The members of the club provided the capital needed for these productions by having numerous bake and candy sales.

Art Club

Seated: Gary Alegre, Leonard Duarte; standing Joan Souza, Karen Faria, Cheryl Mellor

The Art Club was established to give students with exceptional artistic talent the opportunity to work together in an informal atmosphere. Any member is allowed to use the facilities of the art room after school and to benefit from the personal instruction of Mr. Walter Owen.

School Savings Staff

Chairman Paula Zimon

Advisor Miss Helen L. O'Brien

Seated: Susan Ventura, Paula Zimon; standing: Joan Hughes, Cynthia Jennings, Nancy Adams, Gerald Freedman, Pamela Souza

The School Savings Staff tries to encourage the habit of weekly saving through the sale of Savings Stamps and E Bonds. This savings stamp project which started as the War Emergency Program during World War II is now an active project in our peace time living.

Junior Counselors

The students chosen as Junior Counselors assume the responsibility of the pupil inventory cards and other Guidance Office forms. They keep the students informed of any pertinent information available in the Guidance Office.

Guidance Office Aides

These aides are indispensable to the smooth operation of our Guidance Office. Their assistance in clerical work proved to be of great value to the office.

Student Assistants

PUPIL PERSONNEL

Seated, Janice Dutra; standing Sharon Cravinho

The Pupil Personnel Office supervises the New Bedford School Department Testing Program. The assistants in this office correct tests and aid in the operation of the calculating machines.

The various office aides are of invaluable assistance to the administrative offices in the school. All these students volunteer their services during their study periods.

MAIN OFFICE AIDES

This year the vocal music department presented many varied and interesting programs. Students under the direction of Mrs. Katherine Castino and Miss Janet Ratcliffe entertained throughout the year as they demonstrated their musical talent.

The Auditorium Chorus performed at the assemblies presenting a patriotic song at the beginning of the program. Members of the chorus rehearsed several times a week and gave a concert for the D.A.R.

The Concert Chorale and the Handbell Choir often performed together for the entertainment of various civic organizations in the city. The members of the Chorale are all musically talented and versatile, and were selected by Mrs. Castino.

N.B.H.S. was well represented at the District Concert. Seven Seniors attended, six in the chorus and one in the band. We were also represented in the All State Chorus. Two Seniors auditioned and were selected at Boston University.

The New Bedford High School Cadet Corps was founded in 1881 and has upheld a proud tradition throughout the succeeding years. The R.O.T.C. helps to develop discipline and respect for constituted authority in its members. This year marked the 50th anniversary of the federalization of the R.O.T.C. The annual R.O.T.C.-GAMS Ball was held on February 14, and Miss Jan Gonet was chosen as queen. In April, both the R.O.T.C. and GAMS sent units to Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. to participate in the East Coast High School Drill Competition.

The underlying objective of the Girls' Auxiliary Military Service is to instill the qualities of leadership and good citizenship in the girls. These girls marched in area parades on Veteran's Day and Memorial Day. The GAMS also assisted the R.O.T.C. in constructing an impressive float for the Veteran's Day Parade. This year's Drill Team again received the first place trophies in the Tri-Town Competition held in Wareham.

Majorettes

Cuckoo front Roberta Sylvia Head Majorette Susan Mann Joan Hyland Nancy Falcon Deborah Phaneul Rosemary Neves, Nancy Douglas, Joan daCruz, Dorothy Crook

The enthusiasm displayed by these majorettes greatly helped at rallies and football games to kindle spirit in the student body. Their long hours of practice resulted in precision and uniformity. The girls devised several new routines which they used in their half time performances, and they deserve much credit for their hard work.

Cheerleaders

Center Roberta Godber clockwise Cynthia Taylor, Andrea Leonture, Donna Ta bot Paula Zimon Mary Aalls (head), Paulette Bouchard, Cheryl Mellor, Joan Sladewski, Susan Russell

This year's cheerleaders were a group of ten, energetic and vivacious girls. They worked hard at the rallies, bonfires, and games to stir up enthusiasm and school spirit.

The senior members of the squad attended Camp All-American in the summer, and brought back many new ideas. All ten girls spent long hours during the summer and throughout the school year practicing their routines and composing original songs and cheers. Roberta Godber added sparkle to various cheers by also performing as tumbler for the group

The Cheerleaders' Dance, held in November, honored Paula Oliveira as queen, and Daniel Riley as king, and the proceeds were used toward a scholarship for a worthy athlete.

Perhaps the most enthusiastic supporters of our athletic teams were the Beanie Boys. Their many money raising campaigns were for the benefit of the teams. Besides peddling the omnipresent stickers and pins, the Beanes also published "The Crimson Pride" and leaflets containing pictures of the games.

Their funds were used to buy gold watches awarded to each member of our undefeated football team, and to send promising basketball players to Bob Cousy Camp.

Football

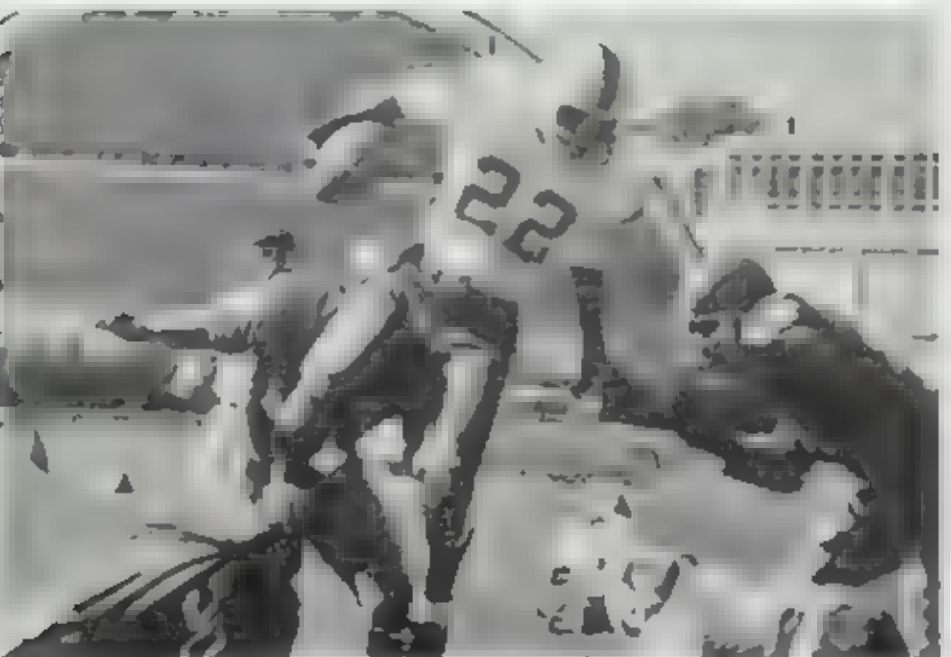

This year's team was one of the best in school history. It's perfect season was marred only by a tie against Coyle of Taunton. Rebounding from last year's unsuccessful season, the team brought football supremacy to the area for the first time in many years. Victories over arch rivals Bishop Stang and Durfee brought to a close a most successful season.

Soccer

New Bedford High reigns again as champions of the Southeastern Massachusetts Soccer League for the fifth consecutive year. As such, the team earned the right to play in the Eastern Massachusetts Soccer Tournament where they reached the semi-finals. Their fine 12-2 record kept alive the winning tradition at N.B.H.S.

Girls' Basketball

The Girls' Basketball Team, spurred on by the determination and enthusiasm shown by all the girls, finished the year with a 7-7 record. The team participates in the Bristol County Girls' League and is coached by Mrs. Pauline Amaral.

The Girls' Volleyball Team, which is also coached by Mrs. Amaral, exhibited excellent team work and a will to win. These were important factors in the outcome of this 1969 season.

Gilbert Soares, Michael Shea, Severiano Rocha, Robert Barn, Frank Olejarz, Paul Amaral, Thomas Duval, Thomas Farias, Brian Thomas

Basketball

Re-entering the Bristol County League, the team, hard-hit by graduation, ran into stiff competition in the early half of the season. Being down at one point with one win and five losses, the boys fought back to earn a 9-5 league record and 9-7 over-all. The team lost a heart-breaker to Attleboro by 2 points in overtime, eliminating them from Tech Tournament consideration. Spirit and determination was the key to this successful campaign.

Golf

The Jack Curry coached golf team did well in the Bristol County League by defeating Bishop Feehan, Somerset, New Bedford Vocational, and Bishop Stang. Two losses to tough rivals Durfee prevented them from qualifying for the State Tournament. These two setbacks did not obscure their otherwise fine season.

Michael Silva, Steve Hammond, David Gottesman

Mrs. Pauline Amaral (coach), Caryn Canto, Mary Aalls, Lucy Harriman, Ann Adamowicz, Lee Bvwell

GIRLS' TENNIS

The Girls' Tennis Team has made a fine showing of skills and enthusiasm, combined to make this year a successful one for all. Practices are held during the spring at the Hathaway Courts and matches are played with participating schools throughout the Cape area.

Tennis

BOYS' TENNIS

The tennis team expressed their desire to win with skill and excellent play. The team established a 13-2 season including victories over Durfee, Fairhaven, Coyle, Taunton, and Holy Family. The team won the right to compete in the state tournament. Although graduation will take many of the players, the team should have another successful season next year due to the play of promising Juniors and Sophomores.

Professional Day

PROFESSIONAL DAY

from the pen of Stuart Dedopoulos

Early in the school year
A bond of trust deceased
The teachers said they would not work
'Till their pay increased

The city said, however
Their pay was quite enough
And if the teachers would not work
The city would get tough

The teachers did not listen
They loved too much their pay
And in a mood of confidence
They called a Professional Day

The city acted quickly
It pointed to the law
And then secured a court decree
It hoped the ice would thaw

Their action seemed successful
The teachers went to school
And all the kids returned to class
The air felt clear and cool

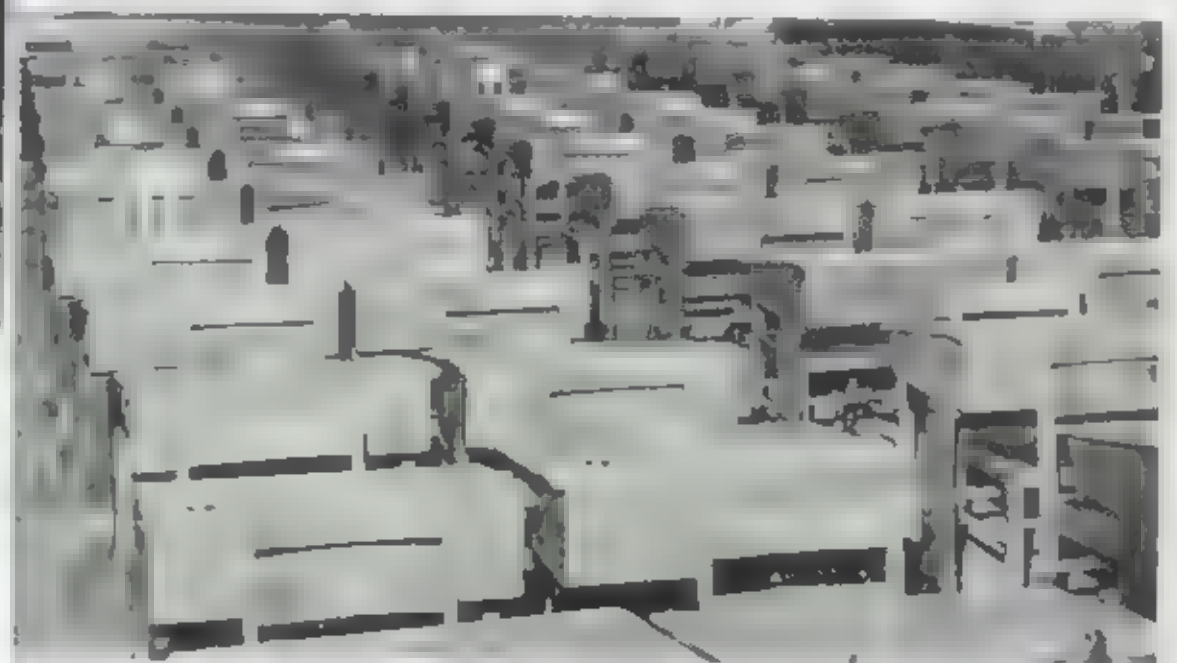

But did the city really lose
When it didn't give up a dime
It trimmed a branch, but left the roots
What happens next contract time

The one day I come, the teachers don't show up.

All right; there's going to be a few changes made around here.

At the next bell, school will be dismissed.

People Around School

"Need we say more?"

"The old looking up in the air gag."

"Good conduct medal? You're kidding."

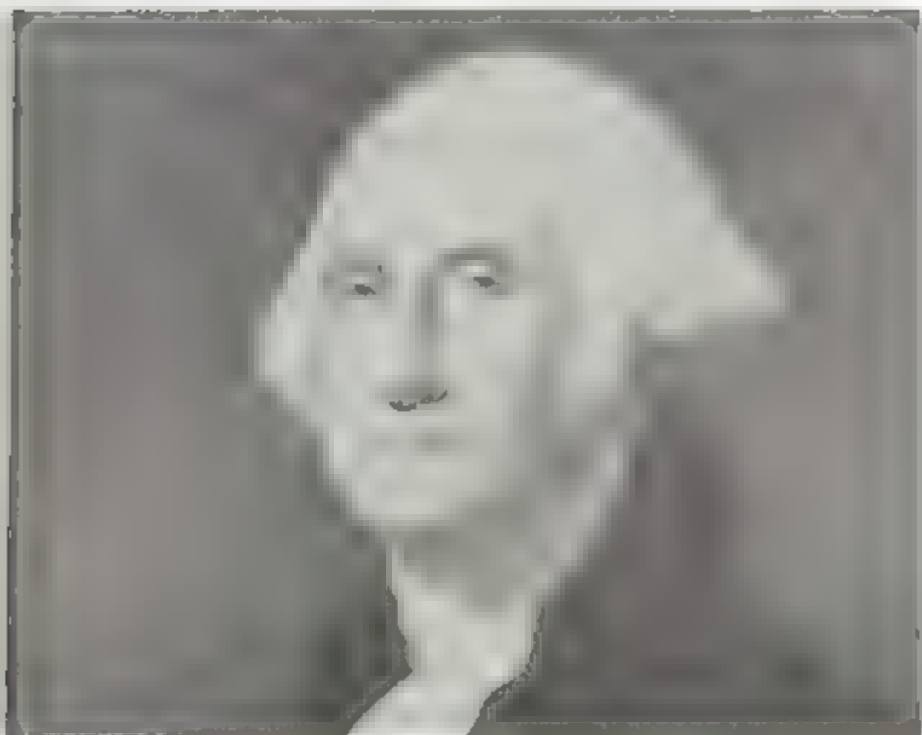

"Poor Tom, he'll never make varsity."

Gr-r-r-rr

"We'd rather fight than switch!"

"My girdle is killing me."

Our answer to the Temptations.

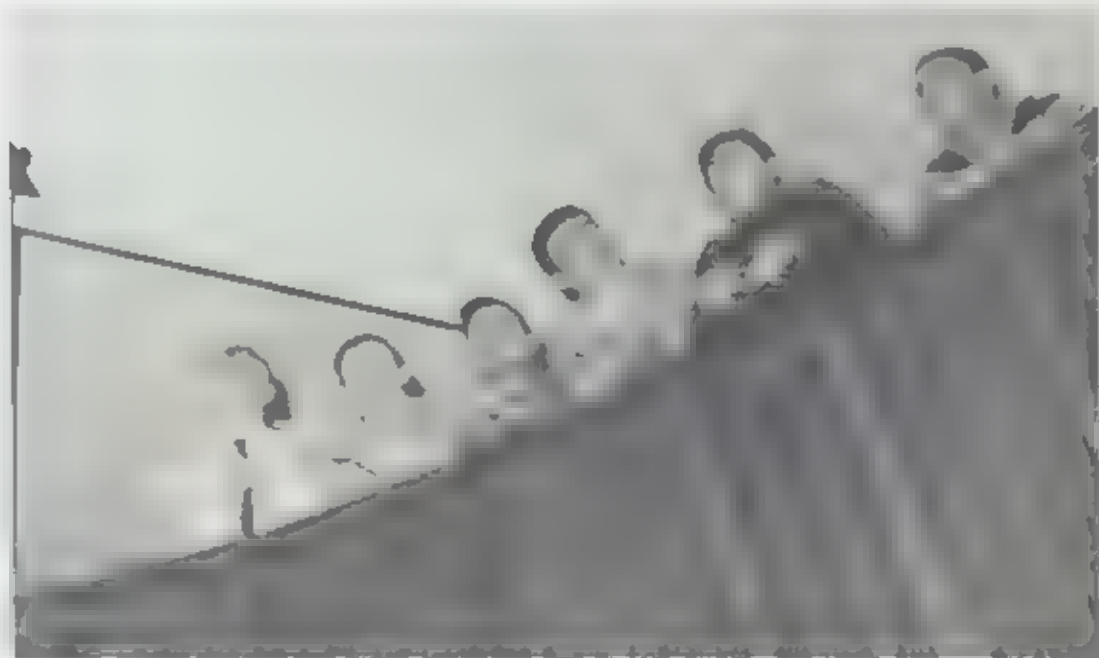

"One, two, three O'Leary."

"Gee, that SMARTS."

"Narcissus Nice, what a sweetheart!"

"Please make the Gorilla Milk work."

"Watch where you're sticking that pin, Bud!"

SUPPLEMENT

Crimson Log

1969

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was...
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago... it must be...
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories:
They're all that's left you.

P. Simon

In the Spring of 1969, New Bedford High School was saddened by the death of Principal John F. Gracia.

His death marked the end of a life long career dedicated to the advancement of education in the city of New Bedford.

Bye Bye Birdie

Conrad, the crowd-pleaser.

Now THAT'S a girl, Sonny-Boy.

What a party line!

The odds are looking good, Marilyn.

Follow the leader.

Senator Brook's Visit

The ROTC does its thing.

Greetings from "Lulu"

I'm getting pretty tired of looking at this sword.

That winning Smile!

Pan-Am Assembly

Sing it, Buddy!

"You put your right foot in,
you put your right foot out"

He plays a mean flute.

Sports Awards

Nice piece of hardware, right Wayne?

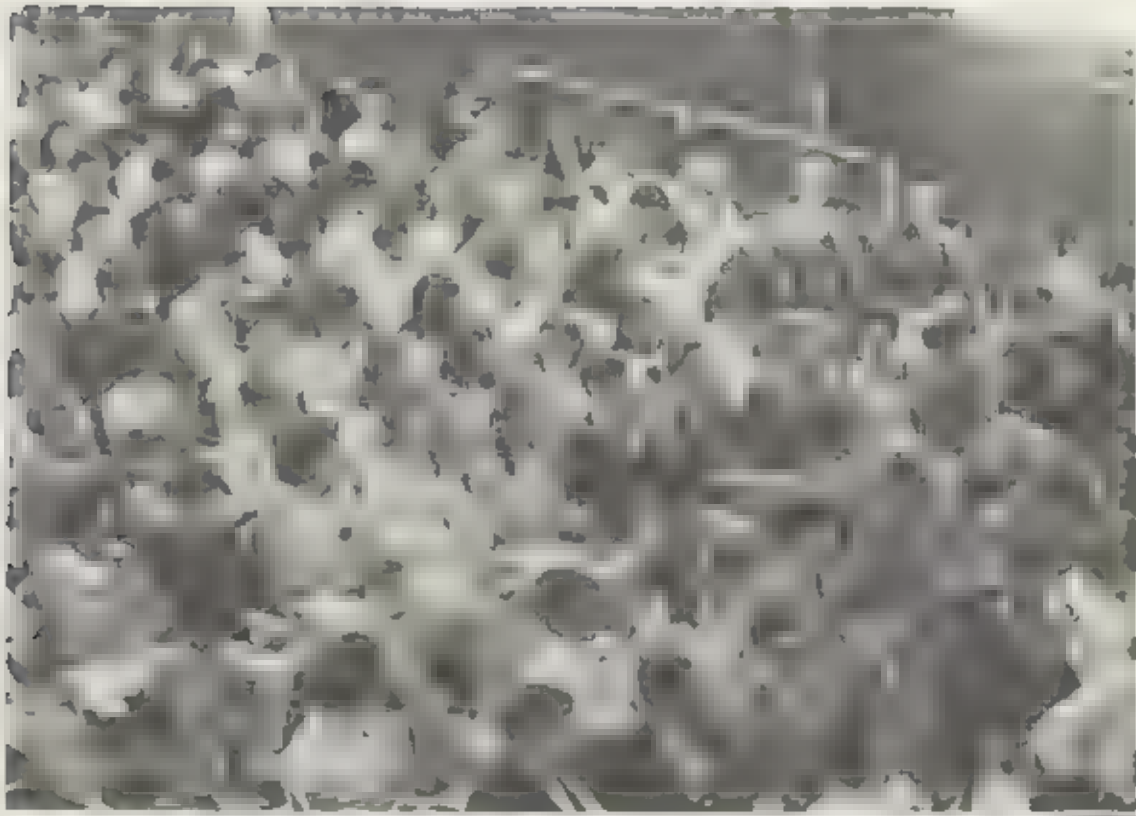

Chalk up another one for Tom.

They didn't jump into the suitcase.

Class Day

Zero days 'til Class Day.

We'll really miss them.

Hail! Hail! The gang's all here!

A fond farewell.

Senior Banquet

Our Dignitaries dine.

"No more study halls with sleepers . . ."

It was a rough year.

Let us entertain you.

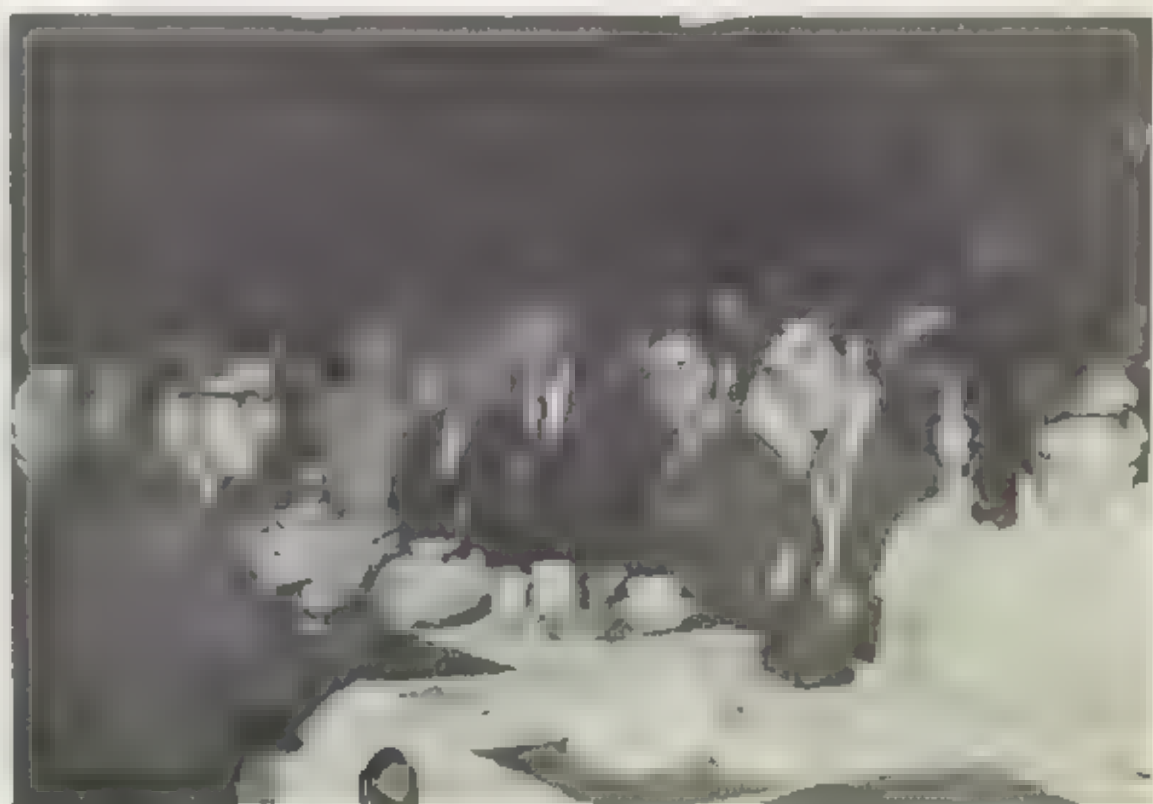

This production will be delayed
due to technical difficulties.

Check out those sexy legs.

Go, Nancy, Go!

Next time the lights go out, hold on to your chicken.

Senior Prom

Our Class Officers and their dates.

Mr. Clean

Come now, don't be shy.

We never knew you had such talent, Eddy.

What a pretty procession.

I wonder who's kissing her now?

They could have danced all night.

Graduation

The final touches.

Rain, Rain, go away.

The "Fine of 69"

When can we sit down?

The Carreiro administration comes to a close

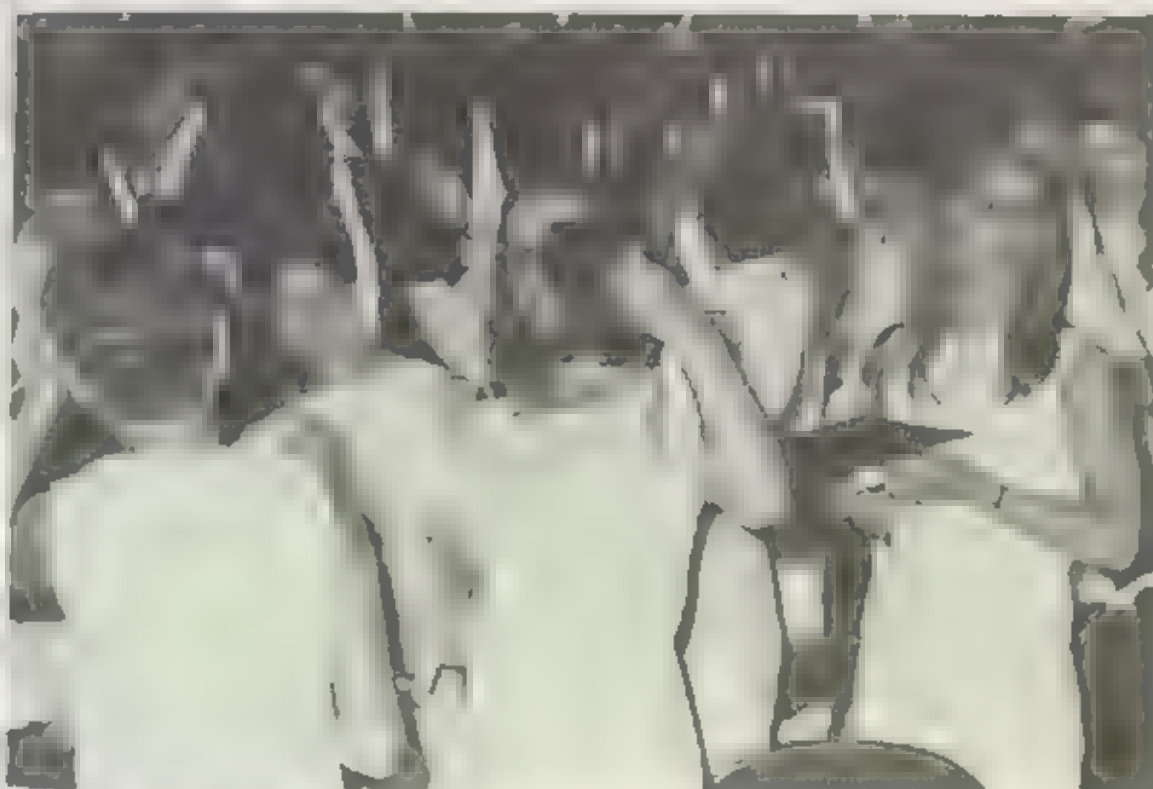

June 19, 1969

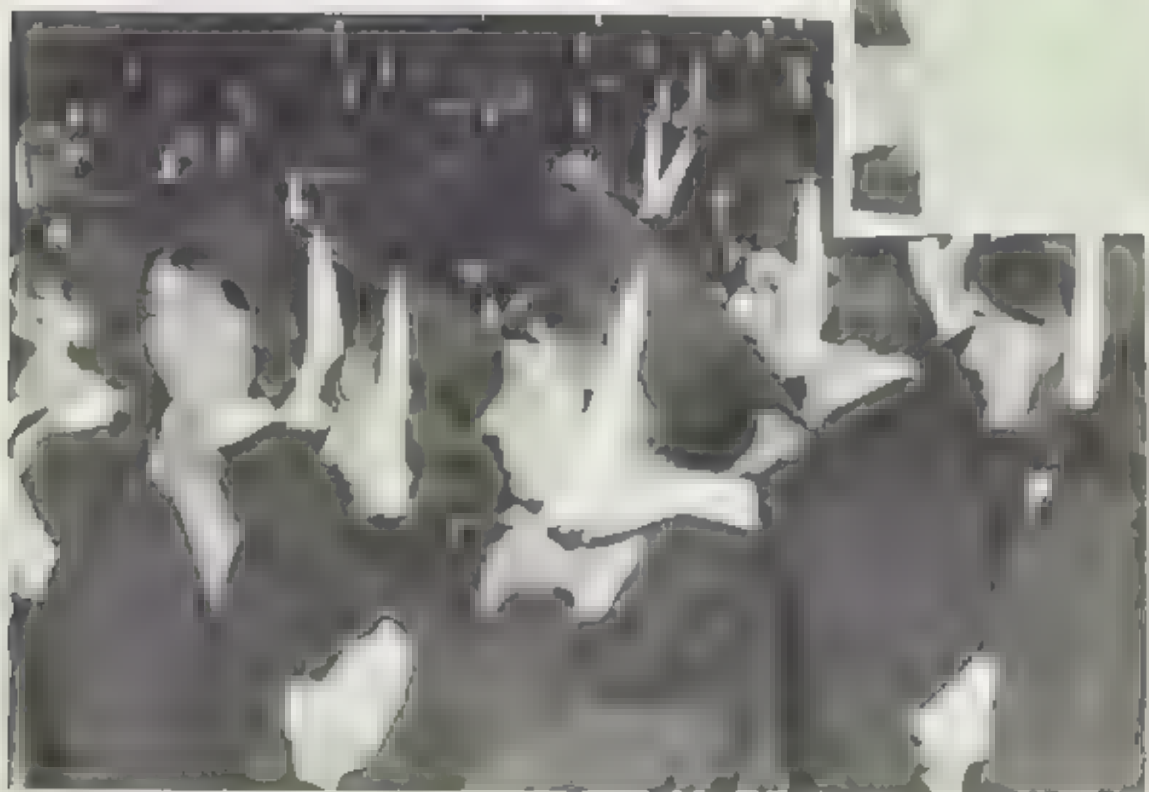

Our last time together.

The city's best wishes.

"I now pronounce you alumni of
New Bedford High School."

On your mark, get set . . .

And finally, Alumni, it's over!

Mixed emotions.

It's all behind us now.
